PRICE ONE CENT

HE WANTS ALL.

J. Pierpont Morgan Will Bid for the Entire Bond Issue.

Will Furnish Additional Gold Equal to One-Third the Whole Amount.

The Price the Syndicate Will Pay is Known Only by Mr. Morgan—It Will, How-ever, He Considerably More Than Was Paid By Him Last February.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-From a subscribing member of J. Pierpont Morgan bond syndicate, the following facts have been obtained:

The syndicate expects to secure the entire $100,000,000 four per cent. bonds which are to be sold by the treasury on February 5.

Mr. Morgan will bid for the entire issue and expects to be awarded the entire $100,000,000. It will take all or

The reason for Mr. Morgan's confidence of the entire success is that he will make an offer so advantageous that no other proposition can stand in his way.

This offer is to purchase the entire $100,000,000, paying principal and pre-mium in gold and in addition fur-nish an amount of gold equal to onethird of the issue or $33,333,833.33 in exchange for greenbacks. The gov-ernment gold reserve will thus not

The price which the syndicate will offer is not exactly known by anyone beside Mr. Morgan. It will be considerably more than $1.04% paid last February. This low premium was paid because of the provision in the contract compelling the syndicate to protect the treasury reserve. No such contract will be made this time. Therefore a higher price will be paid. The figure is believed to be $1.08. The syndicate is now accumulating gold from every available source. Members of the syndicate will be at liberty to make individual bids besides the syndicate bid.

This is the state of affairs to-day. The position will probably hold until February 5, without any change of important details. The president and secretary of the treasury have no all employment of convicts in a way agreement, private or public, with the that would send their products into syndicate. They know, however, what the general market to compete with are Mr. Morgan's intention and knew it when the public call was issued.

There is No Revolt, Says Ex-Minister N. Bolet Peraza.

The Venezuelans Awaiting the Deliberations of the Commission-No Action Will Be Taken by the Government Without Consulting Uncle Sam-

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-N. Bolet Peraza, ex-minister for Venezuela to the United States, was seen by a representative of the United Press relative to the alleged revolutionary movement and other sensational rumors from "My information ... said the ex-minister, "shows that the country is in complete peace. I have had no advices by cable, but if such a state of affairs existed as reported, we certainly would have heard of it. Venezuelan newspapers of December 30 to hand contain no mention of even a possible revolutionary disturbance. Every one of my countrymen is heartily satisfied with the action of the United States and our own government, and are now awaiting patiently, though, of course, anxiously, the result of deliberations of the commission appointed by President Cleveland.

"I am sure President Crespo or congress will take no action on this question without first consulting the government of the United States. The United States listened to our appeal and nobly upheld our rights. Under the circumstances the acts attributed to some Venezuelans in these sensational dispatches are not alone discreditable, but an insult to our common sense and patriotism.
